commencement of its dividends, and will doubtless be followed by others at regular six month intervals.

The Board of Directors of the Long-Island Railroad Co, have ordered a revision of their tariff of passen ger fares. The same to be advanced to two and a half cents per mile in lieu of the present rates of two cents and under. The new rates will be much below the rates the rates charged by the New-England roads. The increase will give the Company about 25 per cent. Increase of iscome, to which they are fully entitled in consideration of their large expenditure, and for which hitherto the stockholders have had no returns.

The receivers of the Manhattan Insurance Company have declared a final dividend of two per cent.
